WALKING TOUR LANDMARKS

1 MARTYRS' CROSS

Look down to see the site where the Oxford Martyrs—Anglican bishops Hugh Latimer, Nicholas Ridley, and Thomas Cranmer—were burnt at the stake for heresy in 1555.

2 SHELDONIAN THEATRE

Designed by Sir Christopher Wren and built in 1668, it is one of the architectural jewels of Oxford. Note the chain of stone-carved masks that enclose and protect this magnificent building.

3 BODLEIAN LIBRARY

Opened in 1602 and now housing upwards of 11 million volumes over 117 miles of shelving. But books cannot be lent—even King Charles I was refused permission in 1645.

4 RADCLIFFE CAMERA

Built in 1749 to house the Radcliffe Science Library and now a reading room for the Bodleian Library. Oxford's most impressive piece of classical architecture.

5 CHRIST CHURCH

Originally founded by Cardinal Wolsey as Cardinal's College in 1524. Traditionally, it has been considered the most aristocratic college at the University of Oxford.
